Effective results with small touches

Design is hidden in the details. Small touches in your living spaces can make a huge impact in decoration.

You should take into consideration some important points in selecting accessories as it is one of the pivotal complementary elements in decoration. When selecting an accessory, you should always acknowledge your taste while also regarding its harmony with other objects and furniture.

Every single material that you select for your decoration (laminated flooring, wall paint, furnitures, accessories, curtains, rugs etc.) need to be in harmony with each other in order to add value and identity to your living space. Where an accessory is used, its harmony with other decoration elements in this space are some of the last details you should consider. General decoration color compatibility and conformity in the living space are crucial. You can also use a specific space of accessories as a focal point or complementary balance area in your decoration.

To give a simple example, if you use a console or a dresser in your home, you can decorative accessories such as mirrors, silverware, candle sticks or candle holders to complement these furnitures.

If you have a romantic decoration style, decorative accessories such as candles, candle sticks, lanterns and cages can complement your decoration style. Wrought iron products are preferred for this type of decoration and you can complement your style with VarioClic Aqua Special's Voli, Fundo and Liga. For a classic interior decoration, you can prioritize your taste with flamboyant elements such as stone or antique accessories and pair them with Alesta, Larmo or Velena laminate flooring from VarioClic Aqua Special.

The Contrast of Colors In The Decoration

It will always be the right choice to use the element of contrast in our spatial designs. Using dark-colored materials with light-colored furniture in our decorations creates an elegant appearance. In addition, dark-colored floor and wall materials add dynamism to spaces.

The decoration of our bedrooms, i.e., the first place that we bid farewell to the day and start the new day, is very important for all of us. The selection of laminate flooring is one of the most important touches in interior design. It is quite important to select the flooring suitable for the space and to maintain its integrity with the wall materials and colors in order to create more dynamic effects. In addition, furniture is equally important when choosing the flooring for your space.

If you want to create both a natural breeze and a dynamic space, Arya laminate flooring offering the dark and natural state of wood will just strike your fancy.

Home Styles Specific to Countries

Scandinavian Style

THE SCANDINAVIAN STYLE THAT GETS RID OF REDUNDANCIES

This Scandinavian-origin design style refers to a natural, tranquilizing, balanced and relaxing decoration style. Although it reminds of a modern and minimalistic style at first sight, it stands out with natural elements and comfort. You can create a Scandinavian setting with the light-colored structure of Lento, Rubato

An ideal Scandinavian style shows itself up with minimalism. It does not include too many decorations and details. Plenty of storage areas and shelves are used to create an organized outlook. Generally, light colors are preferred. The color palette of the Scandinavian style ranges between the white and gray color tones. Sometimes, pale pink, blue and black are also used to add a more striking appearance to the decoration. Walls are usually painted white to bring the furniture and decoration elements to the fore.

COMFORTABLE AND BALANCED...

There are barely any carpets used in the Scandinavian-style decoration. Light-colored wooden laminate flooring is used as the floor covering. The light color of the flooring is important for the brightness and spacious feeling intended to be created in the Scandinavian style.

Latin American Style

THE HARMONY OF BRIGHT AND VIBRANT COLORS...

The Latin American decoration is a specific style forming a part of the people willing to keep their traditions alive; taking great pride in their roots and respecting their culture and past background. In many cases, bright and vibrant colors create a contrast with each other, thus successfully reproducing a typical flat decoration in Bogota and in the distant countries such as the United States of America or Spain with large numbers of resident immigrants. Vibrant and cheerful colors like red, yellow and orange prevail in this decoration. Since Latin is characterized by rhythm, joy and passion, this can be easily seen in the details reflecting the way how many Latino families decorate their homes. Berlin, Serenad and Senfoni laminate floorings are now available for you to complete the Latin American style. Latin-style decoration It is ideal to refresh any home environment with wrought iron, silver and terracotta, the perfect elements to add a touch of the Latin American art in order to reflect the local culture of these people.

Far Eastern Style Home Decoration

ZEN EFFECT IN YOUR HOME...

From and among the Asian-style decorations, the Zen style is a decoration style suitable for people that are fond of low-key, comfortable and spacious environments. Natural products must be preferred as much as possible. You need to give up unnecessary wall decorations and plastic objects in order to create the effect of Zen meaning meditation. However, although preferences are usually focused on red; white, doré, gray, brown, bronze and red are the colors predominating home decorations in this style giving a great place to simplicity and minimalist lines. When applying this style aiming to rest the soul as well as the body to your home you should pay attention to ensure that all furniture form an integrity and that the furniture preferred have geometric shapes. As it is known, natural stone products and wood are the indispensable materials of the Far East concept. Mostly earth tones and natural stone colors are used in this concept with each decoration item symbolizing a different element in nature. Lotus, Rapsodi and Melodi laminate floorings are the options that you can prefer to make the style of your home impressive.

Italian Style

ITALIAN STYLE DECORATION TIPS

As with every decoration style, different colors are used for the Italian style. You will see that, among others, the color sienna, a yellow-brown tone with a longstanding tradition in the Italian culture, is commonly used. In addition, designers generally use earth colors comprising warm tones. These colors help you create bright rooms relaying the feeling of tranquility and elegance. In addition, as light tones are used, your rooms may look quite wider than they actually are. Stockholm, Umeda and Alto laminate floorings create balanced and stylish effects in your living spaces; thus, bringing the nobility of the Italian style.

PERFECT BALANCE OF STYLE AND ELEGANCE

You will see that light colors are often used for furniture. This helps you maintain a sense of harmony across the whole house and none of the elements stands out more than the others. In stylish and spectacular houses, you can even see that gold is used to create small details in the furniture and accessories such as mirrors and vases. When it comes to curtains, it is important to point out that materials play a fundamental role in the Italian style. Italian-style houses are often decorated with curtains, rugs and cushions and similar items. However, curtains must not be too thick in order to let the light to enter into the house.

New York Style

NEW YORK STYLE HOME DECORATION

Called as the city that never sleeps, New York is etched on our mind with its lofts and studio apartments. This big, crowded and congested city has a decoration style that is quite specific to it. New York style apartment decoration usually includes creative ways to make a small space look bigger. The combination of the urban elegance with the urban delicacy of the city creates a decoration style with visual impact and high functionality. Offering you the reflections of modernism and elegance, the Louvre, Melbourne and Seul laminate floorings are among the options that you can prefer to reflect your style.

MODERN TOUCHES IN YOUR HOME

You can create contrast with light-colored walls against dark-contrast flooring. In New York style, you can prefer to use large rugs, cushions and leather-covered sitting groups. You can heat up your home with a few potted plants. In addition, you will have achieved this style by choosing large-sized and light-colored modern objects and paintings.

MELODY

Unique Touches

The relaxing and natural feel of the wood has made it an indispensable material, especially in home decorations. The texture and pattern of the wood are indispensable, especially in our laminate flooring selections, due to the warmth it creates. Additionally, it's very important to strike a harmony between the color and texture of the wood and the furniture, carpet and accessories. Little touches in your decoration can make your space unique.

The symphony and harmony created by Melodi laminate flooring brings comfort to your homes. Its color tone, which is not tiring for the eyes but relaxing for the soul, helps you create a natural and unique space.

Inspiring Simplicity

It is the greatest desire for all of us to become calm and peaceful and to be able to breathe when we come home in the evening burdened with the stress of the outside all day long.

You can have a good time with your family, spare time for your hobbies, and rest and relax in a tranquilizing environment where you can breathe by making your home look simple. Simplifying the environment that we live in is one of the first steps of simplification. The first thing to do for a nonexaggerated, functional, but elegant outlook is to get rid of all redundant pieces in your living spaces.

When you prefer light-toned floorings, you can add dynamism with decoration elements of darker and vibrant colors while simplifying your living spaces.

You can achieve the reflection of simplicity and elegance by choosing Rubato laminate flooring on your floors.

Importance Of Laminate Flooring In Heat And Sound Insulation

Especially in the recent years, we have all become accustomed to living in crowded buildings such as housing complexes in which many people live together. Of course, there are also some disadvantages of living in crowded and high-rise buildings. Most of us cannot attain the comfort that we desire in our homes, especially due to impacts and noises. Improperly applied laminate flooring details and wrong material choices can also lead to extremely disturbing results. Eyfel, Umeda and Rubato laminate floorings are bringing the perfect comfort to your living spaces.

LET YOUR CHILDREN MOVE FREELY

Today, most of us live in reinforced concrete structures. We should bear in mind that concrete structures which we think are very strong and robust are, in fact, one of the most effective materials transmitting vibration. Don't let your children's activities be left unfinished. Get rid of noise problems by stopping high impact and vibration noises with the right product and material selections.

You can prevent not only impact and vibration noises, but also the TV sounds and speech sounds which are defined as air-borne sounds. Cup, Zoo, World, Fisher and Festival laminate floorings are offering you safe and healthy floors which you can prefer to use in children's rooms.

ACHIEVE COMFORT WITH VARIOCLIC

We all want our homes to meet the appropriate comfort conditions. One of the most important of these is thermal comfort. With correctly-selected laminate floorings, it is possible to minimize external weather conditions coming from window and door openings and surfaces not thermally insulated, especially in buildings. The VarioClic series provides thermal comfort while offering a peaceful environment in your home by eliminating the noises and impact sounds that may disturb you. With Paris, Rivoli and Senfoni laminate floorings, you can achieve the comfort that you are looking for.

Linear Light

A bright and comfortably spacious living space helps you achieve inner peace.

It is extremely important to use light in spaces. Buildings are designed for people and people need natural light, regardless of the function of the building. Light and radiance are not only needed, but also aesthetic elements for people. The correct use of light and radiance in architectural designs relieves people and positively affects them from a psychological aspect. Therefore, elements such as light, luminosity, and the use of light are the most important issues emphasized by architects.

The floors that correctly reflect daylight are also very important for your health. With Vivo laminate flooring, it is possible to achieve the relief of daylight. Vivo laminate flooring will allow you to bring an elegant line of wood in its natural tones to your home.

Classic Modern

How about adding a unique characteristic atmosphere to your spaces?

Although the classical and modern seem like two opposite concepts, these two terms are used intertwined in design. Achieving harmony and unity by blending the classic with the modern creates identity in your spaces. Giving up the ordinary will sometimes come as a revelation to us and strengthen our creative side. Offering the warm tone of wood combining traditionality and modernity, Berlin laminate flooring adds value to your home.

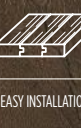

Preferring warm tones that will fall into line with the dark tone of the wood will allow you to create a different atmosphere, thus achieving the harmony of contrasts.

MAINTENANCE AND CLEANING OF LAMINATE FLOORINGS

We all pay attention to the cleaning of laminate flooring surfaces in our homes. Especially in the recent years, our living spaces have started to leave their defined areas and allow for more flexible uses. VarioClic offers you the laminate floorings on which you can move freely in your homes without any concerns about their cleaning.

ATTAIN FREEDOM IN YOUR HOME

The laminate floorings that we prefer for floor covering retain their first day's shine and durability for long years if they are cleaned correctly and regularly. Melbourne, Arya and Alto laminate floorings are among the durable and long-lasting products that you can prefer.

You must prefer brushes with softer texture instead of hard-tipped brushes for the cleaning of laminate flooring surfaces. In addition, you can extend the useful life of your laminate floorings by using natural materials instead of chemical cleaning products.

EASY-TO-CLEAN, HEALTHY SURFACES

CLEANING STAGES

- Make sure to vacuum your laminate flooring before wiping them.
- It will be enough to clean your laminate flooring with a damp piece of cloth instead of a wet cloth.
- You can easily use mops since our laminate floorings are scratch-free.

Elegant Choices

You can achieve integrity by using contrasts together in design.

Using the contrast of both styles and colors will make difference in your living spaces. One of the most important elements to reveal this contrast will, of course, be to determine the characteristics of your space. For example, the angle of reception of the light, the size and height of the space, etc.

You can create elegant designs reflecting integrity by using the old and the new together, and preferring contrasting wall and floor colors.

The Effect Of Artistic Trends On Home Decorations

Romantic Touches In Your Home

Romanticism is a movement that has adopted the principles of freedom and equality which emerged in the 19th century. Although this style reflects elegance, it inherently contains a strong rebellion. If you have an emotional, romantic, yet irrational soul; the romantic style is just for you. You can create a tranquilizing and relaxing environment with this style in which neutral and light colors are heavily preferred. White, cream, pale blue and brown tones are considered among the indispensable colors of this style. You can boost your design by using a plenty amount of flowers. Kolezyum, Eyfel and Lento laminate floorings are among the laminate floorings that you can choose to create romantic spaces.

Capture The Dynamism Of Geometry With Cubism

Cubist artists are interested not only in the visible aspects but also in the invisible aspects of objects. Standing out with different geometric objects, Cubism movement is also often preferred in home decoration. If you are a person who is curious and always thinks of different possibilities, using this trend in your house will make you feel much more comfortable at home. Cubist decoration is mostly preferred in bedrooms and living spaces. Rivoli, Versay and Lotus laminate floorings are available for you to create a cubism effect by combining them with geometric designs.

Surrealism, The Movement Of Infinity

The lexical definition of surrealism is "intense irrational reality". It is comprised of imaginary and incongruous images. It is a movement that can be preferred by people willing to add depth and a different meaning to home decoration. You can apply this movement at minimal levels in your home, thus, getting rid of the tiring effect. For example, you can create this effect by using classic and large-sized furniture in combination with an incongruous and modern object in your bedroom. If you want to feel surrealism at your home, you can choose Amsterdam, Senfoni and Paris laminate floorings.

Reach The Future With Futurism

Futurism originated in Italy at the beginning of the 20th century. Freedom is one of the most outstanding slogans of futurism. If you have a free spirit, you can easily use this movement in your home. Although futuristic decoration, in which minimal objects, wide spaces and balanced colors are used together, is generally seen in hotels and plazas; it has started to be preferred in personal spaces as well in the recent years. The purpose is to make spaces look wider and more spacious than they actually are. You can support this style by using large lighting elements and sitting groups closer to the ground and putting comfort first. Seul, Paris and Pisa laminate floorings can help you add effective futuristic touches to your living spaces.

Fresh Homes Filled With Pop-Art

As pop-art is a trend aiming to reveal the creative side of the human being, reflecting pop-art in home decoration will allow you to create lively, dynamic and fun environments. Pop-art is mostly preferred in workspaces and sitting areas. Vibrant and contrast colors are commonly used. The repeated use of visuals is also among the clues that will best reflect this style. Fado, Newyork and Kopenhag laminate floorings can support your pop-art decoration.

Hollywood Style Decoration

Hollywood style is one of the styles that best reflects the concepts of splendor and luxury. It embodies many elements through which people express themselves creatively. The primary purpose of this style is to create a comfortable atmosphere reflecting emotions. This style has a classic appearance and enriches the interior design with many decorative details.

-Clean lines stand out.

-Metallic surfaces are preferred for lighting.

-The use of mirrors is important.

We observe that a plenty number of metals is used with a gloss finish. Using a single color palette instead of too many different colors will help you achieve more effective results in the Hollywood style. Furniture with clean, stylish and flat surfaces must be preferred in this style. The glossy and refined finishes of the furniture create a kind of contrast. Berlin, Petronas and Eyfel laminate floorings can be used as good complementary items for this style.

Use fancy patterns with straight lines...

You can use silk, satin, leather and velvet fabrics for the upholstery of armchairs and pillows. You must make the final touch with your accessories in order to add a luxury and flamboyant outlook to the environment. You can use anything that shines; glass, marble, rock... Large mirrors, ceramic vases, large ceramic figures, dark-shared glass oil lamps...

The Modernity Of Gray

Modernism has recently become one of the philosophies that we hear a lot. As with every area, it is very popular to adopt modernism in decoration.

You can catch up with today's trends by choosing simple and minimal products in order to see the reflections of the modern lines in your home. Achieving the harmony originating from the contrast of light and dark colors will add a modern touch to your spatial decorations.

Dark-colored furniture and walls in earth colors which you can use to make your spaces look bolder and more impressive will be the decoration choices that will be in harmony with the Colosseum laminate flooring.

INDUSTRIAL STYLE

CONCRETE SURFACES STAND OUT

Industrial style emerged in New York in the 1950s. Supported also by the rustic design, the industrial style transforms unused depot, warehouse, hangar, and factory areas into living spaces.

We come across unfinished details in this style. For example, like a concrete wall not plastered and painted. Therefore, nothing needs to be in good order, plastered and organized. There is no need to hide ventilation and service pipes. These elements have become a part of and been integrated with the design in the industrial style decoration.

Tile walls may be a part of the industrial design. This will allow you to achieve a vivid transition on the walls of your house. You can use gray and its shades and include metallic surfaces in your furniture selections.

You can prefer furniture made of steel, iron and weathered wood materials. You can prefer to use a large-sized dining table and support this design with dark-gray leather armchairs.

You can create a cozy environment by preferring wooden-like floors and create an excellent contrast between wooden and metallic products. If you want to add color to your spaces in industrial style, you can prefer spicy red tones and dark blue color palette. Lighting fixtures are indispensable for a modern living space. You can enrich your design with pendant globe lighting suspended with a metallic wire and create spaces reflecting your personal tastes. Serenad, Newyork and Paris laminate floorings are among good options for the industrial style.

The Reflection Of Your Imagination

The concept of dynamism which we have frequently heard recently also finds its way into our designs. You can add dynamism to your decorations by passing beyond the colors and patterns that you are accustomed to use in your spaces. Adding creativity to your spaces by getting rid of the ordinary things will make you feel better in that space. You can put your seal of originality on the spaces by choosing decoration elements expressing you for the spaces where you can find the reflection of your imagination.

Starting from your flooring preferences will be the easiest way to add dynamism to your spaces. Choosing products with different colors and patterns other than the customary brown, wood tones and patterns when making your laminate flooring preferences will add dynamism to your living spaces.

With its impressive gray tone transitions from light brown tones, Versay laminate flooring is available for you for your living spaces. With Versay laminate flooring, it is very easy for you to create dynamic spaces by choosing wooden furniture in cream, beige, and light tones in your spatial designs.

Children Growing Up With Science

The relationship that children establish with science starts from the very first moment they get in contact with the natural environment and continues throughout their whole life. In their early childhood, children need to understand the knowledge, processes, and values of science and how the structured knowledge is used in society. Therefore, science constitutes the path that children follow to explore the world in early childhood.

From the Kids series of Yıldız Entegre's VarioClic brand, Cosmos laminate flooring appealing to the creative world of children is a product that you can choose in terms of both their health and safety.

The use of plain and light colors will not only allow them to focus on their studies, but also provide spaces where they can spend time in peace. You can easily use these products in baby's and children's rooms with convenient furniture and decoration products.

Suggestions For Decoration Of Children's Rooms In Four Steps

Your child's room should be a place creating enough space for them!

FLOORING IS IMPORTANT

The choice of flooring material in children's rooms is of great importance. Young children often prefer to play and sit on the floor. Therefore, the material selected for flooring must have both a hygienic and antibacterial surface.

If you have a small children's room, you can make the space look wider and more comfortable by preferring light and natural colors. You can create the ideal room for your child by preferring Cup and Fisher laminate floorings.

CHOOSE PERMANENT FURNITURE

When it comes to children's rooms, tiny and cute furniture are the first things that go on in our minds. But the fact that children develop and grow very quickly must be the most important detail that parents should focus on.

Your furniture choices must consist of ergonomic products that will adapt to their development stage. In addition, it will be convenient for you if you select the furniture that is easy to clean and stain-proof.

CHOOSE THE COLORS THAT WILL INCREASE CREATIVITY

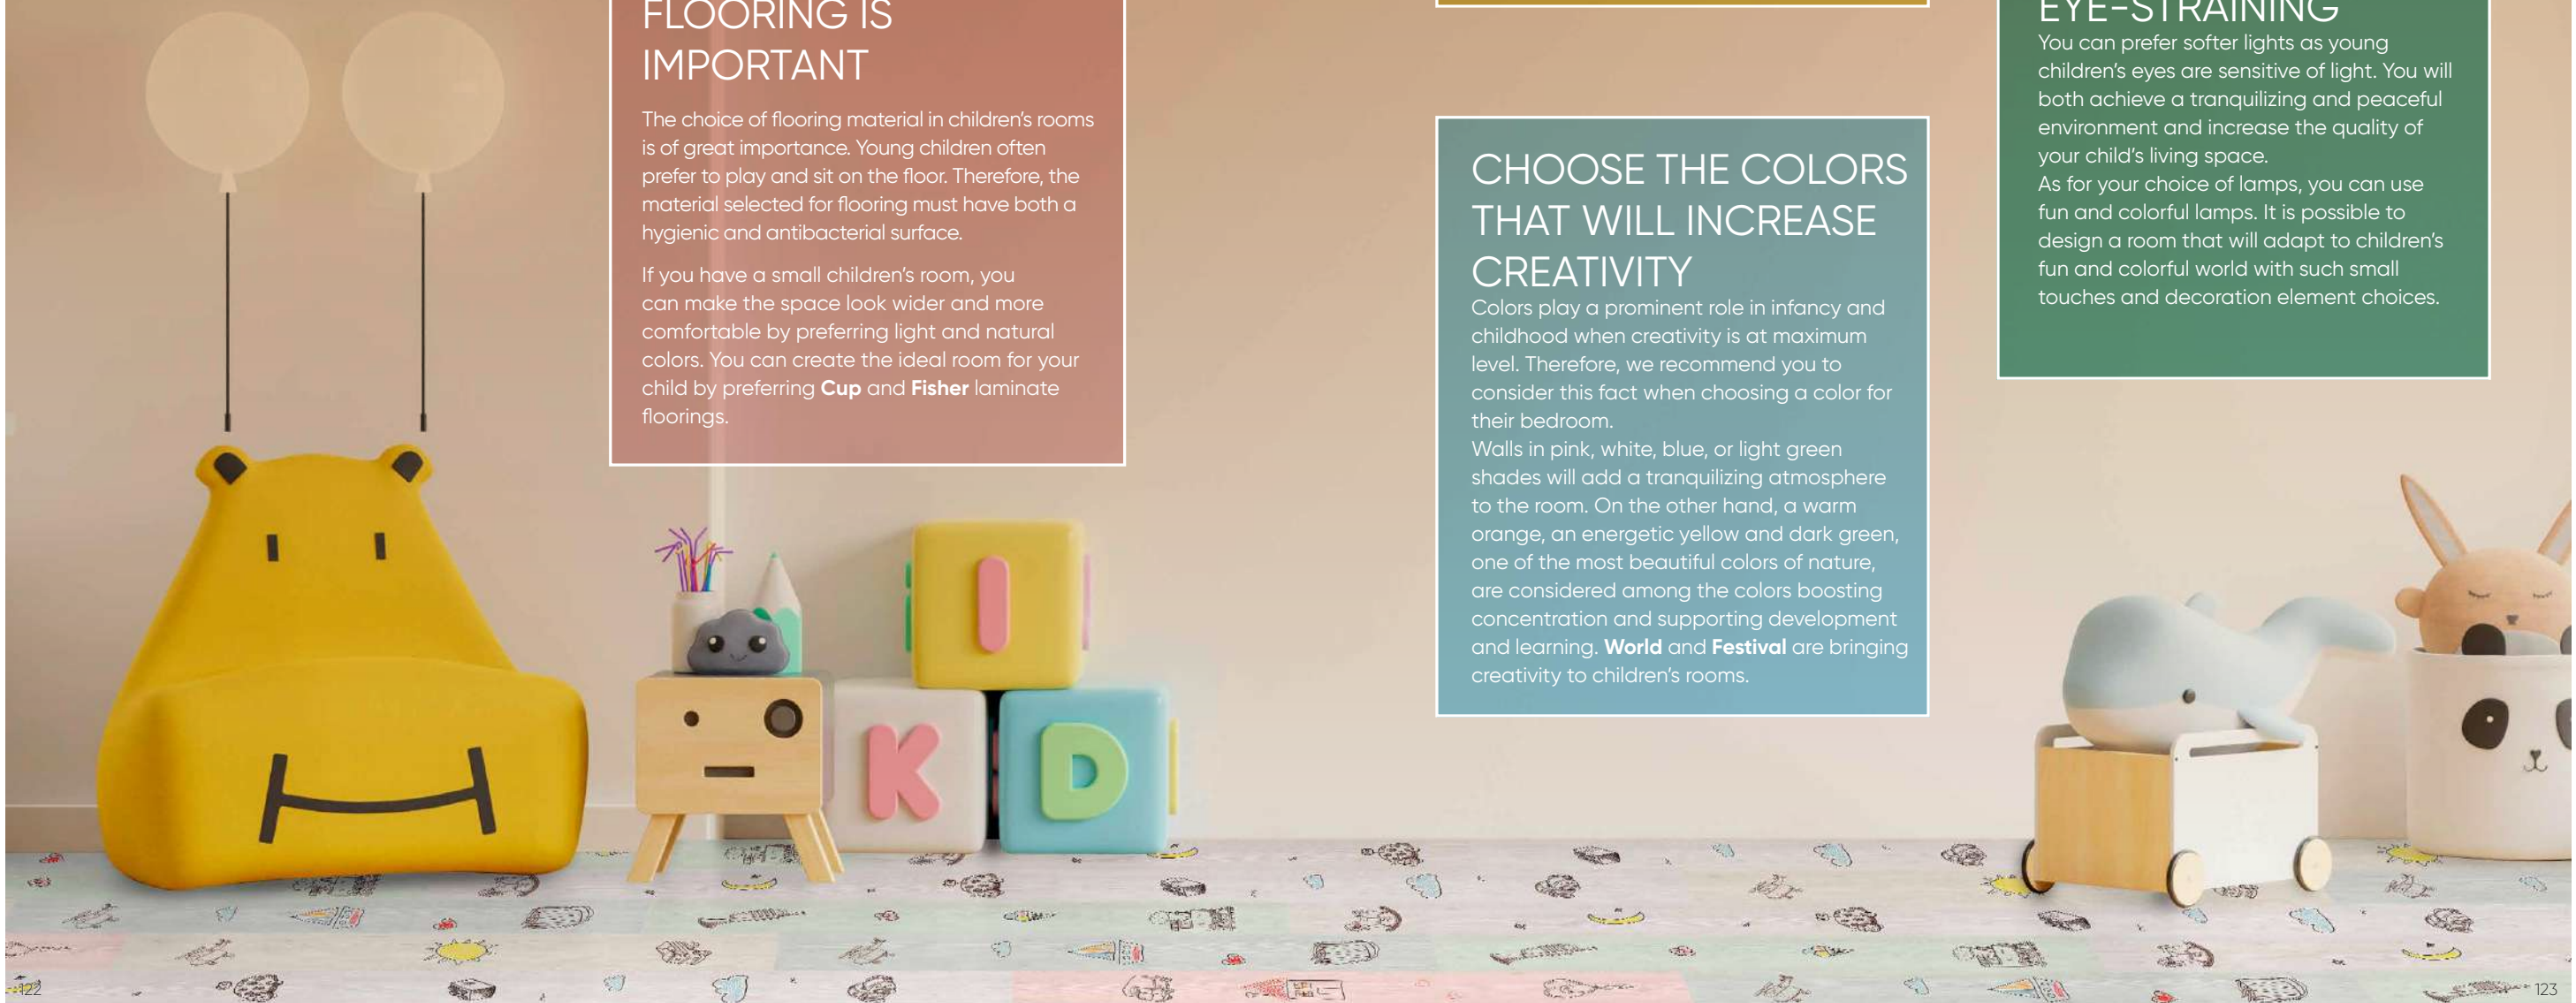

Colors play a prominent role in infancy and childhood when creativity is at maximum level. Therefore, we recommend you to consider this fact when choosing a color for their bedroom.

Walls in pink, white, blue, or light green shades will add a tranquilizing atmosphere to the room. On the other hand, a warm orange, an energetic yellow and dark green, one of the most beautiful colors of nature, are considered among the colors boosting concentration and supporting development and learning. World and Festival are bringing creativity to children's rooms.

CHOOSE A LIGHT SOURCE THAT IS NOT EYE-STRAINING

You can prefer softer lights as young children's eyes are sensitive of light. You will both achieve a tranquilizing and peaceful environment and increase the quality of your child's living space.

As for your choice of lamps, you can use fun and colorful lamps. It is possible to design a room that will adapt to children's fun and colorful world with such small touches and decoration element choices.

FESTIVAL

Colorful Worlds

Knowing the effect of colors can provide a great advantage in successfully decorating the rooms where children spend a great deal of time. It is in your hands to create an environment where they can do whatever they do with fruitful results and with fun while sleeping, studying, resting, and playing games, e.g., while spending most of their time. Colors have many properties such as giving inspiration, making happy, exciting, calming down, giving confidence, and healing.

While offering a different approach to the colorful world of children, you can have the opportunity to reflect their understanding of fun onto your floors in different colors. With Festival laminate flooring from the Kids series of VarioClic brand, you can support your children's creative side with their rooms forming both a playground and the first place of experience for your children.

Deep Spaces For Curious Children

Children are everything to us. We want them to live in the best conditions and with good health; therefore, we do everything that we can for their sake. However, since children's rooms are the places where they spend most of their time all day long, we must design the decoration of their rooms with this awareness and in a way serving their imagination.

Curiosity is an emotion that exists all life long and starts the learning process.

The depths of underwater have always attracted children's interest. Reflecting their endless world, Fisher laminate flooring will pique your children's curiosity with a sense of depth, minimal colors, and patterns.

Importance Of Antibacterial And Scratch-Resistant Flooring In Children's Rooms

Babies and children are more prone to allergies than adults. Therefore, their living spaces must meet their health conditions as best as possible. The laminate flooring that you will choose must be hygienic. Especially the selected laminate flooring is quite important for the children who like to spend time on the floor. Children usually like to play around freely in their rooms with food and drinks in their hands. The crumbs falling around can accumulate on the floor, thus leading to bacterial growth. Ease of cleaning helps you create a healthier living space for your children.

CREATE FREE FLOORS

Children are highly likely to scatter everything in their toy boxes and make a mess of their rooms all at once. Therefore, choosing a laminate flooring resistant to scratches and impacts will allow you to use the product with safety and comfort for long years. Zoo and Cosmos laminate floorings are offering the perfect laminate floorings for your children.

Retro Touches in Architecture

Harmony of the old and the new...

Retro is the adaptation of furniture and accessories used in ancient times to today's modern decoration approach, and the reinterpretation of ancient styles with a contemporary design approach.

In line with this understanding, without having to decorate the whole house with period furniture, you can get an impressive look by blending a few retro pieces with modern style.

Choosing pieces such as the dining table and TV stand in wooden tones, will support the modern retro style.

Retro style decoration is for you if you want your living spaces to bear traces of the past.

Contrast lies at the heart of the modern retro decoration concept. You can achieve the contrast in decoration by blending the old and the new in the integrity you will create, from the furniture and accessories you will choose to the floor covering. With comfortable, modern armchairs and minimalist accessories, you can make small retro touches to the space by using an authentic patterned floor covering.

BORA

Add Motion to Your Floors with Different Styles!

One of the cornerstones of interior decoration is flooring. After choosing the laminate floorings color and pattern you will use for a floor covering that serves for decoration, another important decision is that, in which direction you should lay your laminate flooring. Your laying direction can drastically change the effect of your flooring on the space. With different flooring styles, you can achieve more dynamic or, on the contrary, calmer spaces. When choosing the flooring direction of laminate floorings, there are many different criteria such as the dimensions of the laminate flooring, the size of the space, the light condition and colors.

You should determine the laying direction of the laminate flooring according to your decorative taste. In this way, you can reflect your own style in your home and create unique spaces away from clichés. Laying direction is determined by considering the dimensions of the room and laying starts from the straight wall edge. It should be noted that every point of the floor to be applied is at the same level. If you want your room to appear larger, you should lay the laminate floorings parallel to the long side of the room.

Laying in the direction of the light is another criterion to consider. In square-shaped areas, the laying direction of the laminate flooring should be perpendicular to the sunlight. In areas close to rectangular form, laminate flooring panels should be laid parallel to the long sides.

Alp Fishbone, Anthracite Fishbone, Natural Fishbone, Authentic Fishbone series fishbone laminate floorings in Yıldız Entegre VarioClic Standard collection, revives the trend of the past period. Fishbone laminate floorings, which bring a new breath to those who are bored with the classic, gives a new look to living spaces with 4 different color and pattern options.

Irresistible Impact

What effect your floors will have is entirely in your hands. Will it be quiet? Or will it be remarkable? If you combine the right pattern you choose with the right color and right flooring styles, you can achieve the results you want in your living spaces.

The combination of gray color with wood is a very popular and frequently preferred option in decoration. Because the unique coldness of gray combined with the warm patterns of wood creates an aesthetic whole. Colors such as dark gray, which are especially preferred in bedrooms, allow you to create a calm and relaxing atmosphere. If you have also preferred a dark laminate flooring, you can achieve the integrity of the atmosphere by supporting it with wooden furniture.

Reflecting the elegance of fishbone decors, the Anthracite Fishbone series emerges from the combination of contrasts, adding a dynamic atmosphere to living spaces. Anthracite Fishbone, which evokes the classics with its wooden patterns and emphasizes the modernity with its gray color, is a good option for those looking for a difference in decoration.

The Effect of Floor Tones on Design

Light Color Laminate Floorings

Laminate floorings, the starting point of decoration, add difference to home decoration when the right color selection is made. Although wall and furniture colors are the focal point in the selection of colors in home decoration, the floor covering should be kept in the center for a harmonious color combination. If there is a situation where the floor is chosen according to the furniture and the walls, laminate flooring colors that will look compatible with these materials should be chosen. Although brown tones are generally preferred for flooring, light colors such as cordoba and cream have been preferred in recent years due to their easy adaptation to other colors.

Light-toned laminate floorings such as Amasra, Unye and Fethiye in VarioClic collection are special options for those who love this type of color.

Floors That Highlight Furniture

When choosing a floor color, the color of the items should be considered. Dark floors should be preferred for light-colored items, and light-colored flooring should be preferred for dark-colored furniture. The laminate flooring color you choose should complement each other with the color of your room. Colors that do not obscure the color of the furniture in the environment should be preferred. Laminate floorings such as Gobi, Manyas and Sarıyer from VarioClic collection will be the right choice for those who prefer dark furniture.

Center of Colors: Floor

Floor tiles actually create a background color for your furniture and accessories. Therefore, it is very important to choose a color that is compatible with your furniture. For example, if you have special design furniture that you want to highlight, you should choose a natural and clear-looking floor covering to complement it. This will create a neutral canvas and allow your furniture to become the focal point.

Laminate Flooring Types Suitable for Room Size and Lighting

The size of the room you will decorate and the amount of light it receives are directly related to the floor color you choose. For example, dark colors used in large areas create a warm and whole feeling, while light colors used in a room of the same size can make the space look cold. The same principle applies to the opposite situation as well. When this is the case, it becomes very important to make the right color choices for small rooms.

If you have a small space, you can make your space spacious and bright by using natural-looking floors close to white such as cream, beige or light oak. Laminate floorings with a weight of white such as Sicily, White Oak and Agva from VarioClic collection are ideal options for making your small square meters look spacious.

Dark Floors

Light-colored walls balance the dark floors in the best way possible. In addition to the elegance of the combination of contrasting colors, the light-colored walls allow you to choose the color you want in your household items. Plain colored walls can create a stylish background for items and accessories of different colors. In addition, modern-looking furniture and light-colored tulle curtains complement the dark laminate flooring in an elegant way, creating a special decoration. This combination, in which dark floors are in the center, is often featured in Scandinavian style decoration, especially with the inspirations of northern countries.

The Effect of Dark Floors on Decoration

In addition to the white color, the light brown wall color can also be a good match with your dark laminate flooring choice. When combined with dark brown laminate floorings and light brown walls, it can create a tonal effect and bring a sense of quality to your interior decoration. This duo allows you to create a very stylish ambiance, especially in styles that create a feeling of untouched and natural elements such as rustic decoration. Dark-toned laminate floorings from VarioClic collection such as Lecce, Milan and Uskudar are among the special options for those who want to differentiate themselves in decoration.

Multifaceted Aesthetics

There are many criteria to consider when decorating your living spaces. The materials and colors you choose from floor to wall and wall to ceiling in the design of the space should be in harmony.

Today, the most preferred material as a flooring material is laminate flooring, due to its diversity, applicability and ease of access. Choosing the laminate flooring before deciding on the wall color and furniture will be the right starting point to create your decoration style. After these, factors such as the light condition of your living spaces come into play.

The Perfect Harmony

Harmony is one of the most important issues in decoration works. If colors and styles are not combined correctly, the decoration that emerges at the end of the day may not be pleasing to you, although you may have preferred it with pleasure.

For this reason, you should also consider the wall paint, door color, carpet, furniture and sofa colors when designing your home decoration. People try to choose different models in general products such as armchairs, curtains, bookshelves in order to make different designs. However, no one comes to mind to create a different decoration with laminate flooring.

Light-colored laminate flooring is one of the most ideal options for a spacious room atmosphere. While dark laminate flooring may show a little more dust, light walnut and light gray color laminate floorings show less dust. The biggest advantage of light-colored laminate flooring is that it creates a clean and spacious environment. The second is that it is very useful for different house designs.

Putting a carpet that will not be too dark on light-colored laminate flooring and placing a modern cream-colored armchair on the carpet, will allow you to create a stylish combination. You can add motion to your home by placing small accessories in dark colors at different points of the room.

Belek, one of the VarioClic Standard series, while it will bring freshness to your living spaces with its light color, with its natural gray tones will perfectly adapt to the decoration you want to design.

DOOR, LAMINATE FLOORING, SKIRTING HARMONY

Skirting boards are generally used to cover the defects that occur after laminate flooring, paint or plaster and to prevent possible damage to the wall. However, while choosing the laminate flooring, harmony should be sought with the skirting boards as well as with the furniture and walls.

In order for the interior decoration to look harmonious, it is important to consider the colors of the floor, skirting boards and doors and their relationship to each other. When it comes to skirting boards, the first thing that comes to mind is white glossy or natural wood textures compatible with laminate floorings.

You should choose the skirting boards produced in various thicknesses in accordance with your wall and floor structure. Because the thickness of the skirting board can affect the appearance of the hall in a good or bad way.

The fact that the skirting is the same color as the laminate flooring does not mean that it will always be compatible. This is where your tastes and instincts should come into play, as well as the recommendations of your master or interior decorator. When it comes to color matching, you can think of contrasting colors. Especially if you have decided on a light-colored floor, dark-colored products will look very stylish in your interior.

The color choices of the skirting boards are very important for the designed area. For example, if you use the color of your baseboards in softer tones, you can better emphasize the delicate details in the patterned wallpaper. A white skirting can make the wallpaper look dull. On the contrary, the clever use of soft colors adds vitality to it. For example, a gray skirting board will help you get the effect you expect from a light wall. Or you can match it with one of the color tones on your skirting wall covering and get a nice color match.

Skirtings in dark hues are an effective design tool in a long and narrow hallway. Skirtings that go around the corners and folds all the way to the end of the hallway will make an eye-catching look in the space and become the focal point.

Creating the focus on the skirtings will create the feeling of a larger and brighter space in the hallway. Another use is that a single color used on walls and wood creates a strong and attractive appearance. In this type of painting, the entire wall shade can make the hallway appear larger than it is, as skirtings do not break the color scheme.

Get Rid of Excess!

The minimalism movement is one of the important movements not only of art but also of interior decoration. In minimalist decoration, where functionality comes to the fore, there is no room for any detail that will not be used. A spacious and simple space concept that does not tire the eyes is adopted. Just like in art, the concept of minimalism in decoration reveals the essential beauty by eliminating the unnecessary.

KOYCEGIZ

V-836

Especially light colors are preferred in modern home decoration. You can combine light-colored walls and floors with light-colored furniture. Or vice versa, you can create a simple atmosphere by using dark walls or furniture on your light-colored floors.

When creating the right decoration, it is important to achieve harmony with the least amount of items. Any unused item should not be included. A modern armchair that will meet your needs, pleasing wall paintings and a small carpet that will not cover the floor will be enough to reflect your style.

With the balance of colors used in furniture, walls and floors, Koycegiz laminate flooring will bring a unique interpretation to your living spaces with its plain appearance. While Koycegiz will add a refined touch to your spaces with its jointless structure and calm stance, it will become the harmony center of your decoration with its bicolor appearance.

A Japanese Inspiration: Wabi Sabi

With the Wabi Sabi style, an ancient Japanese philosophy, you can create warm, friendly and comfortable spaces. While Wabi represents clarity, humility and harmony with nature, Sabi symbolizes a simple but peaceful lifestyle.

Natural materials should be used in spaces designed according to this philosophy, and areas should be decorated with functional items. In the living spaces you will create with the Wabi Sabi motto, you can choose wooden furniture, green plants and carpets that do not completely cover the floor.

To complete this style, you can use Cypress laminate flooring, which reflects pure and clear beauty, on your floors, and you can bring happiness to every place you live.

For this decor, it is recommended to use Cypress Skirting.

Light and Floor Relationship

Lighting materials should be used more than once in houses with little natural light. Reflecting light with certain objects (such as mirrors and paintings) to be used in home decor, is important to use a chandelier above the dining area and to illuminate the living area. While hanging chandeliers can be used in high ceilings, ceiling mounted lighting or spot lights should be preferred in low ceilings. Sconce floor lamps are ideal for creating a warm atmosphere in the living room.

In places where the light is intense, laminate flooring can be chosen in light and warm tones, as well as dark laminate floorings can be used. Laminate floorings from VarioClic collection such as Lecce, Tokyo, Fogo, Benin and Cypress, help you create a good home atmosphere with the right use of light.

The place can be shown more spacious by using more light colored laminate floorings in the places where the light is less. On the other hand, light colored laminate floorings can be used, which add a spacious look to living spaces such as Alanya, Belek, Genova and Beykoz.

Country Inspiration in Decoration

The story of country style, which is one of the most popular home decoration styles today, dates back to the 1900s. The modernized version of the style used in the rural areas of Europe and North America at that time defines the boundaries of today's country concept. The country style, which reflects the peace of nature to your living spaces, helps you create unique spaces with its happy energy.

Wood floor color, woven fabrics and wall paintings reflecting nature blend perfectly with the country style. Wide coffee tables, lounge poufs and many other details allow you to create a comfortable home atmosphere.

From accessories to furniture, from ceiling to laminate flooring, the Serengeti will lay the groundwork for the country style you will create as a whole.

Spaciousness Born From Minimalism

Nothing can replace the feeling of spaciousness offered by a newly remodeled and cleaned space. Minimalist home decoration is style that will increase your quality of life while making this feeling of spaciousness permanent. Minimalism is a trend that emphasizes simplicity and objectivity. It is entirely based on order and balance. In living spaces that complement each other; minimalism is a lifestyle that allows you to spend time peacefully in a calm atmosphere away from rough furniture, eye-tiring colors and suffocating materials. If you want to adopt the minimalism trend and apply it in your living spaces, you should choose simple and understated products for every decoration item you will use in your spaces.

Volga laminate flooring, which is indispensable for those who seek simplicity in design with the philosophy of less is more, is a special option for those who want to create a minimalist style.

Color Suggestions Compatible with Volga Laminate Flooring:
In walls, furniture and accessories; you can use sky blue, evergreen, latte, ivory and cinnamon colors.

DEFINE YOUR STYLE FIRST...

Before you start the interior decoration work, you need to decide on your own style. After determining your style, you must first choose your floor covering. Because floors are the starting point of decoration. Choosing furniture on the determined floor and painting the walls accordingly will help you create an effective atmosphere.

After choosing the floor that reflects you, you can frame your style with the right furniture. When choosing furniture, all items must speak the same language. In addition to the comfort of use and design of compatible furniture, the selection of other objects to be used in the space is also important.

While choosing simpler and gray tones furniture for a modern style space, plain paintings can be used on the wall.

While golden yellow is indispensable for a classical style space, furniture in warmer tones suitable for country and vintage style should be chosen. Laminate floorings, which are the most complementary elements of furniture and style selection, need to proceed in line with the chosen style.

You can use Natural Fishbone, Alp Fishbone or Sariyer from the VarioClic series in accordance with the furniture selected in a classical style.

In modern-looking spaces, furniture chosen in grayer tones is accompanied by light colors on the walls, while Kadikoy, Samos and Kerpe with gray transitions can be preferred for laminate flooring.

While warm tones and patterned furniture come to the fore in country spaces where a lifestyle intertwined with nature is adopted, laminate floorings that create integrity with its texture, such as Manyas and Serengeti, should be chosen.

YOUR STYLE

With its unique designs, modern patterns and rich product variety, the VarioClic Laminate Flooring collection brings the elegance of wood together with your living spaces.

RETRO STONE

Timeless Elegance

Retro style, known as the adaptation of furniture and decor styles used in the past, is now very popular. In retro decors accompanied by lively and bright colors, ocher, brown, tile and green tones are the main colors used. If you do not want the retro tones that stand out with their energy when used on walls and furniture to be too dominant in the home atmosphere, you can use these colors in complementary products such as carpets or pillows.

Period furniture is not as essential as it seems to create a retro style. You can also capture this feeling by using wooden decors that will evoke the old period instead of old large furniture.

Retro Stone laminate flooring adapts easily to a home atmosphere where natural tones will be chosen, while helping the space to have a stylish and modern look.

The patterned structure, jointed texture and continuous lines of Retro Stone add a timeless elegance to the perception of space.

HOME OFFICE, THE FUTURE OF WORK

Recently, the working system of the whole world has been reshaped with the conditions of the pandemic. Companies that closed during the times when everyone was self-isolating found the solution by switching to the home working system.

New Offices: Homes

The coronavirus, which affected the whole world after 2019, caused a change in business life as well as social life. Although it was thought that the coordination would be disrupted in the changing working system, the working order continued by maintaining the efficiency. In case of normalization, companies that adopted the remote working system decided to continue in this way.

How to Create Efficient Workspace?

Along with the pandemic, some changes have been made in the home office working order. Living rooms, kitchens or office rooms, decorated for the working area, have been reorganized.

When designing office space, an order should be provided that will not distract attention and increase productivity. The created area should receive sufficient light, be quiet and comfortable.

What Color Laminate Floorings Should Be Chosen for the Office Room?

Colors and objects are important to increase working efficiency. After creating a well-lit area, relaxing and not tiring colors should be chosen. A space created from the calmness of white, blue and green tones will provide efficiency.

Small green plants on the table used in light colors, less object selection will make the area look more spacious. Light-colored laminate floorings such as Fethiye, Alanya, Golcuk and Manyas from the VarioClic series can accompany the walls in light and pastel colors. In addition to light laminate floorings, more natural and warm tones such as Ephesus Oak, Didim, Sariyer and Giza can be used.

The Solution for Every Need: Golcuk

Our offices are one of the places where we spend the most time. Sometimes we stay in offices or workplaces more than we do at home. As a matter of fact, we need to pay attention to the floor in to every material we will use, from the decoration of the place we spend so much time in.

Because it is a natural and useful material, laminate flooring is one of the most used floor covering materials in offices as well as in homes. When deciding between laminate flooring types for offices, you should both have aesthetic concerns and consider quality.

Since a lot of time will be spent on it, floor coverings with a long service life and resistant to heavy traffic should be preferred. In addition, it is important that it is resistant to scratches and abrasions and is resistant to UV rays.

Features such as being easy to clean, non-staining, antibacterial, easy to install, and variety of colors and patterns are the reasons that affect our laminate flooring selection in our work areas.

The Importance Of Colors

It is important to benefit from the power and harmony of colors when designing a house. Describing the relationship of colors and the different properties that govern them, and even much of the existing work on these theories, is as complex as it is extensive. The important thing in home decoration is the harmony of the items with each other. For this reason, for color harmony in decoration, laminate flooring, carpet, wall color, furniture and accessories should complement each other.

Colors and Their Effects

Colors can be associated with psychology, symbolism and even mysticism, and these take on different meanings depending on the artistic, historical or cultural period. Looking at the well-known names in the history of architecture, Luis Barragán shows color as an element that evokes spatiality and emotions, while Siza Vieira emphasizes that surfaces speak. So, colors are more than they seem. It can represent happiness, sadness and even health. For example, blue gives confidence, green represents health and naturalness, so it is frequently used in the health sector. While black, which is used more than it is, gives pessimism, white gives happiness and energy.

Things to Consider When Choosing a Floor Color

If an environment is created with walls, floors and neutral ceilings, different visual effects are achieved when certain colors are applied to different surfaces. For example, when a darker color is applied to the ceiling, there is a feeling of lower space. However, if the same color is applied to all the walls, the perception of a longer space than it actually is will be produced. If you want to reduce the height of the area or bring the focus to height, you can achieve the desired effect by painting all surfaces at half height and bringing darker tones to the upper surfaces.

The colors chosen for the floor as well as the wall and ceiling are of great importance. It is very important to establish the balance between the wall color and the laminate flooring harmony. On the preferred floors such as Lecce, Nova, Milan from dark laminate floorings, the walls should be in light colors.

Harmonized Colors

Light-colored laminate floorings can allow you to act more freely in wall and furniture colors. For a warm-toned decoration, laminate floorings from VarioClic collection that will adapt to country and bohemian styles such as Acacia, Serengeti, Mudanya can help you create the space effect you want. Pastel color transitions are also one of the most popular approaches in such decorations.

Always on Trend, Always Beautiful

Classic style decors, which never go out of fashion, are the center of attention this year, just like every year.

In order to reflect the classical decoration, which is dominated by orientalist patterns, flamboyant colors and velvet surfaces, some elements need attention. For example, you can use sharp objects to add elegant touches to your classic decor. Amber glass, matte and bronze brass surfaces will bring splendor to your spaces.

You can prefer geometric patterns, curved and mother-of-pearl embroideries, especially on the wallpapers you will use in your living room. To add elegance to the environment, you can use background and roller blinds, and for lighting, you can use spots that show the objects you want to highlight.

Color Suggestions Compatible with Giza Laminate Flooring:

FOR A PEACEFUL LIFE

An interior has three outstanding main lines: Walls, floors and furniture with large footprints. In fact, we can only say walls and floors for offices. When this is the case, the starting point to design a good space is colors and floor patterns.

When it comes to workspaces, our keyword is "peace". The tones that allow people to spend time in peace have always been natural tree decors. And when these decors are combined with green and white colors, a calm and efficient workspace is ready.

Amasra, the floor decor that will invite peace to your working spaces, carries the calming effect of wooden tones to living spaces.

Color Suggestions Compatible with Amasra Laminate Flooring:

Dark Atmosphere Night Effect

Named after our "Dark Academia" trend, this style stands out with large and pretentious items. Indispensable elements of this trend include dark-colored items, wooden decoration elements and black glossy floorings. You can further increase the night effect with Berlin, Kolezyum and Serenad laminate floorings.

Japandi Design is Standing Out

We think that there is nobody not enchanted by the spell of the houses with Japandi design. It is also possible to see the effects of the Scandinavian culture within Japandi decoration.

We will frequently see the colors such as brown, beige and off-white in this decoration example that has adopted an extremely minimal style. You can support your Japandi style with Antwerp, Umeda and Paris laminate floorings.

Organic Textures

We will frequently see organic surfaces such as wood, natural stone, bamboo and terracotta in 2023. These patterns displaying unpretentious esthetics will be accompanied by beige, gray, white and earth tones. Add perfect touches with Modivo And Kolezyum laminate floorings.

Today, with the development of technology and changing architecture, the ergonomic structure of the buildings has started to change as well as the designs. Smart homes and offices, which emerged when technology and architecture were combined, greatly facilitated human life. The design processes for smart homes, which are expected to increase further in the future, continue to evolve.

Houses, where new generation home automation, remote management and security solutions are implemented, are gradually becoming a part of life. Interest in smart homes, which has become very common, has also increased considerably.

In systems that are aimed for people living in the city to spend more productive and comfortable time at home by getting rid of the chaos of daily life, time, trust, speed and comfort areas come to the fore. Smart homes not only consider the efficiency and comfort of the people living in them, but also the comfort and efficiency of their neighbors and all those living in the city, and try to create a healthier society. Smart buildings promise to create a safer and more efficient world in the future.

The Best Tone of Nobility: Brown

Brown, which is indispensable for decoration, appears in all areas of life. This color, which evokes both seriousness and durability, is an ideal choice for living spaces with its numerous combination advantages and warm appearance.

Brown, which provides effects such as seriousness and reliability when used in offices, plays a leading role especially in furniture and upholstery. This color, which enters all areas of our lives with the natural texture of wood, can become very modern when used with light tones.

CIDE

Although brown evokes seriousness, it is one of the most natural means of bringing a warm feeling. Combining decoration classics such as black, cream and white, brown is an indispensable choice for furniture, flooring and home textiles. Although the colors on items such as pillows, bedspreads and curtains may vary, it is an ideal color for a stable midtone

Also, unlike all these, brown is a unique option for a sophisticated look. Whether it is modern, traditional or country style, you can create spaces that do not strain the eyes by combining many options from this color scale. Ambitious accessories are not necessary for a striking use of brown in decoration. Using different textures and materials with different tones of this color adds a very noble atmosphere to the space.

Cide laminate flooring from the VarioClic series is the right choice to create the home decoration of your dreams and to reflect the brown atmosphere to your home. Cide will change the atmosphere of your home with its plain, eye-pleasing and equally assertive color.

A New Life Concept

Colors that are compatible with each other should be analyzed well and used with the right decors. In this sense, it is necessary to be very careful when choosing flooring and color. The decoration of the house should be determined on the laminate flooring-floor axis, which is one of the most important elements that affect the visual of the house in general.

If you are going to prefer pine and spruce colors for the laminate flooring, you should first examine the Scandinavian style decorations. Light-colored floors, which are often preferred especially in Scandinavian style, are very effective in making the space both more spacious and larger than it is. For those who love dark colors, you can use light laminate floorings with a balancing feature, but also with matte tones and darker tones of furniture.

Beykoz laminate flooring, which can be used in many styles from classical to modern, offers a good option for those who prefer light laminate floorings with its natural pine texture and soft color.

Bringing the calmness created by the soil and nature to every corner of your home can be both fun and happy for you.

When it comes to earth tones, especially clay color, cream browns and tile colors can be said. If you want to create decoration with earth tones, you can paint one wall of your room in clay color. You can harmonize with the clay color by choosing the color of your other walls in cream tones. Clay color will add a different and elegant atmosphere to your living space.

If you prefer your armchairs, tables and television stand in earth tones too much, a uniform appearance can be created in the home atmosphere. To prevent this, you can blend earth tones with soft colors, thus creating a calm and clear living space. Among the colors that are compatible with earth tones, we can count pale colors.

Home-Life Philosophies

Home decoration philosophies, adopted with different trends in many parts of the world, are designed with the smallest detail in mind so that people can have a pleasant time in it.

Philosophies with different ideas such as Feng Shui, Zen, Hygge and Lykke allow to design a happy home atmosphere by bringing naturalness, calmness and peace to living spaces.

Feng Shui Decor

Feng Shui, which has become popular in home decoration trends, brings important touches to nature and peace to homes.

Feng Shui literally means wind and water. The reason for this is the belief that the energy of wind and water coming from nature will make life more balanced and bring abundance and luck. Changing living spaces according to this philosophy will make people feel more peaceful and calm. In order to make room for positive energy in homes, it will be healthier to get rid of excess items and reduce them to a minimum. With the energy flow provided by creating a spacious area, it is necessary to stay away from sharp-edged and pointed furniture.

In this philosophy, which gives importance to the arrival of natural light, dark corners can be illuminated with floor lamps. While using colorful pictures and plants as accessories, objects containing water can be placed in the visible parts of the room. Light-colored laminate floorings can be used to adapt to all tastes, such as Alp Fishbone, Samos, Retro Stone in the VarioClic series, on areas painted in natural and light color tones on the walls.

Houses According to Zen Philosophy

Zen philosophy is a movement that adopts a minimalist understanding and raises motivation and energy.

Zen philosophy, originating from India, is a meditation understanding that focuses on harmony, balance and relaxation.

In this decoration, which is based on the philosophy of minimalism of the Far East, elements that give comfort are used. In this trend, which includes harmony and balance, everything is applied quite calmly and simply. Natural colors and simple furniture are preferred in minimalist decor choices that give comfort to the mind and body. Zen style is based on natural tones, especially earth tones. Shades of brown, beige, white, and sometimes pale pink are used. Laminate floorings in brown tones such as Beyoglu, Giza, Sariyer, Didim, which stand out in the VarioClic series, should be chosen in the laminate flooring selection in areas where minimalist furniture, plain walls, less use of objects and soft wall colors are used.

Hygge Home Style

Hygge, which is a Danish concept and envelops all Scandinavian countries over time, has become one of the trend applications recently. In the philosophy of Hygge, which is known as a kind of art of happiness, it is aimed to add a warm atmosphere to the homes.

In this style, which is dominated by light colors, natural appearance and a dim environment, ostentatiousness is avoided. The use of wood is very important in the houses furnished in accordance with the Hygge philosophy, which includes natural materials. It is important to create a warm atmosphere and to evoke the feeling of transporting nature to the home in decors where raw wood is used.

Laminate floorings used on the floor also have a natural and knotty appearance, helping the house to protect its nature. Natural-looking laminate floorings such as Sanremo, Agva and White Oak from VarioClic collection are very suitable for the Hygge type home style. In addition, the wall color in light tones suitable for the chosen floor can help create a peaceful environment and bring happiness to your homes.

Happiness, Good Luck: Lykke

Lykke, which means 'good luck' and 'happiness' in Danish, prioritizes simplicity and naturalness in homes. According to this philosophy, people can achieve absolute happiness when they maintain a certain balance inside and outside. Lykke, which focuses on simplicity and inner peace, does not use technological and distracting devices that are too intertwined throughout the day. Creating short-term rest and relaxation areas by getting rid of technological devices contributes to the increase of individual awareness. Although Lykke shares similarities with the Scandinavian trend "Hygge", their approach to the home is different. While hygge is a trend based on comfort and convenience, Lykke provides a decoration that aims to be happy with the little things.

Lykke, which prioritizes simplicity and naturalness in home decoration, is designed with materials that can give a sense of naturalness, especially in interior spaces such as natural wood, stone and ceramics. Light-colored laminate floorings such as Fethiye, Beykoz, Sicily used on the floor can be preferred to light-colored paints used on the walls.

Color Suggestions Compatible with Fethiye Laminate Flooring:
In walls, furniture and accessories; you can use light gray, gray, light khaki gray, dark brown and dark wheat colors.

Creating Depth with Mirrors

Mirrors are known for adding spaciousness and aesthetics to the spaces where they are used. Especially when the mirror used in the living room, which is the largest area of the house, is positioned according to the direction of the light, it makes the space look wider. Mirrors that show more light when positioned on the opposite wall of the window add freshness to the space.

Mirrors, full-length mirrors or wall-mounted frameless mirrors used on the cabinet also provide a rich and stylish look.

The use of side-by-side mirrors in the corridors, which are the darkest parts of the house, will not only make the space appear larger, but also help you create a pleasant space to use. In bathrooms, where mirrors are used the most, positioning can be made on the sink, as well as narrow or full-length coating. This use allows you to achieve a wide and luminous result.

Modernism in Architecture

The modern decorating style is based on a design movement born in the early 20th century. In contrast to the flamboyant and extravagant decorations of the Gothic, Renaissance, and Victorian eras, Modernism produced simple and uncluttered designs with clean lines.

The commonly used word to describe modern style is elegance. For this reason, no useful items and details are not included in modernism, and the rule of simplicity is based on every item, including furniture. Contemporary decoration is a style that combines clean, sharp lines and a simple color palette and embodies comfort and comfort in particular.

Laminate Floorings Should Be Special For You!

One of the most important elements determining the identity of living spaces, laminate flooring is one of the first steps of differentiation in home decoration. When choosing the laminate flooring, the number of users in the house, the light condition of the house, children and pets should be considered.

First of all, the area where the laminate flooring will be used should be determined. Laminate floorings should be chosen separately for houses and offices with low pedestrian traffic, and in a different class for offices with high pedestrian traffic.

The laminate flooring you have chosen will make your home look more elegant if it contrasts with the furniture and accessories you will get.

The harmony of wall color, skirting boards and laminate floorings will provide unity in the house.

People who live alone or newly married can be more courageous when choosing laminate flooring. You can choose laminate flooring in contradictory colors and patterns without worrying about usage, and you can reflect your own spirit in your home.

Antibacterial laminate flooring should be used in large families with children.

Which laminate floorings Should Choose Large Families with Children?

While there are no children in the nuclear family, decorating the house is only done according to wishes. With the inclusion of a new person in the family, the existing order becomes an area where safer, natural and antibacterial materials are used. The laminate flooring and carpet used on the floor are also important for children who fall a lot during the growth phase.

Soft, dust-proof and bacteria-free carpets should be preferred. Likewise, laminate floorings with anti-dust and antibacterial properties should be used on the floors. With its antibacterial structure, VarioClic laminate floorings will be the right choice for you and your children.

IMPORTANCE OF WALL PAINT IN DECORATION

One of the important elements when decorating a space is wall paint. It is possible to create different effects in living spaces with walls painted with different color tones. When you want to change your walls, you can create the home atmosphere you want to have by choosing different decoration options.

As many of us prefer, the first option that comes to mind in wall decoration is paint. The fact that it has a longer life, is easy to clean, and the cost is less than other options makes the paint in wall coverings ahead of other options.

Although interior wall paint selections are usually made on the basis of wall paint colors and names, the type of paint you choose is at least as important as the color. Because you can achieve integrity only when you make a choice in line with the structure of your wall. For example, if your walls are imperfect, then you should prefer matte paints rather than glossy ones. Because glossy paints can show imperfections on the walls.

Paint types are important not only in terms of aesthetics but also in terms of usefulness. For example, if you have a small child who loves to paint and even uses different areas of your home instead of a drawing book, then it would be very healthy to choose an erasable paint type. In addition, the wall color you choose is of great importance for the integrity of your space.

The walls, which make up the bulk of the decoration in terms of volume, affect the perception and identity of the space. There are many important points when choosing a color for wall paint. Some of these are criteria such as the color palette of your space and the light condition and size of your room, etc. For example, if your space is small, you can make it look more spacious by choosing a light color wall paint. Or if your space is bright enough, you can choose wall paint in darker tones.

Sand beige, gray, oyster, champagne, ecru, ivory and cream tones are the most common colors used in home decorations. These tones, which are seen as a color assimilated by culture as well as showing brightness, accompany almost every style. These colors are also very advantageous in terms of long-term use.

MARMARIS

PM-686

The colors you choose according to the physical characteristics of the space should be accompanied by the flooring. If you like using vibrant colors, natural-toned laminate floorings are just for you. Marmaris laminate flooring which will perfectly complement your colorful home atmosphere, will add an aesthetic appearance to your living spaces with its patterns and lines reflecting nature.

Details Enlightening Life

Everyone likes to play with colors when designing our living spaces. However, some important points should be considered when choosing colors for decoration. Because regardless of the color tone you choose, the amount of light in the space can create different tones on the colors.

The reason why the color looks different is completely related to the source and amount of light. When choosing colors in decoration, it is necessary to pay attention to how much daylight the space receives. In this context, it is necessary to consider the decoration as a whole by incorporating the light into the work.

If you want to increase the quality of decoration, you must use the light correctly and make the right lighting choices such as lampshades, chandeliers, floor lamps. It is very important that the corners of the house, walls and floors are illuminated with these lightings.

For this decor, it is recommended to use Marmaris Skirting.

In the Shadow of Peace

When creating our living spaces, we want a calm and heartwarming decoration. Because we always feel most comfortable at home.

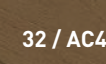

In order to establish a quiet, comfortable and peaceful home where we can socialize with our family and friends, watch TV, read books, listen to music, we must first focus on the living room. While designing your living room, you can choose trendy design lines, and you should not neglect to add your own style to these lines. One of the most important things for a peaceful home decoration is simplicity. The fact that the furniture and other tools are crowded in your environment will put a separate stress on you. In order not to be exposed to this stress and to create a more peaceful space, definitely try to get rid of your excess belongings.

In addition, you can do small tricks such as making your room look bigger or brighter than it is by changing the floor and wall coverings. When decorating your space, you can start by changing your floor covering. Creating a good floor is also very important for the whole decoration.

Color Suggestions Compatible with Sariyer Laminate Flooring:
In walls, furniture and accessories; you can use baby blue, pale brown, dark gray, pale pink and black colors.

Designed for those who love calmness, Sariyer laminate flooring will help you create a peaceful interior with its natural color and pattern inspired by the waves of the sea.

The Energy of the Sun at Your Feet

Recently, we have been spending a lot of time at home and especially in our work areas. That's why we started to pay attention to many points while determining our home style. Because we realized that floor, furniture, wall colors and accessories affect our working efficiency. For example, the fabric, texture, color of the selected furniture, wall and floor coverings, accessory harmony and many other factors affect our perception of space. For this reason, we need to pay attention to the harmony of the materials we choose when designing spaces.

Floor coverings are also one of the factors that affect the perception of our living spaces. The feeling of warmth when we step on the ground and the energy transferred to us make our day go well. Since wood creates a feeling of warmth in human psychology in general, it provides a great benefit to us in our living spaces.

Color Suggestions Compatible with Side Laminate Flooring:
In walls, furniture and accessories; you can use old golden yellow, gray, bronze brown, pinkish gray and black colors.

Spreading the energy of the sun under your feet, Side laminate flooring not only allows you to work easily but also brings freshness to your life with the pleasing effect of the yellow color.

Indispensable Classic

The use of wood in decoration is quite common and there are multiple methods of using wood. Each type of tree has different color tones, different durability properties, different textures, and each has its own advantages. When it comes to aesthetic appearance, it is possible to say that most wood looks very stylish and beautiful.

The most prominent among these types is walnut wood, which is generally accepted as the best wood material in the world by professional interior designers, architects, carpenters and users. Stylish and impressive by itself, the color tones function as a decorative tool that emphasizes the aesthetic features of the space without the need for any paint or color.

For this decor, it is recommended to use Bergamo Skirting.

LAMINATE FLOORING AND FURNITURE HARMONY

The secret of a successful decoration is to use colors correctly and appropriately. Colors that are compatible with each other should be well analyzed and complemented with colors suitable for these tones. In this sense, it is necessary to be very careful when choosing floor coverings and furniture color.

Laminate flooring models and colors are one of the most important factors affecting the visual appearance of the house, so a decoration should be made in accordance with the laminate flooring color used. Laminate flooring colors are the most important detail that shows the design in the house and affects the stance of your furniture and accessories.

One of the most common mistakes in decoration is ignoring the laminate flooring color. Floor covering has a characteristic that determines the general atmosphere of the house. Therefore, you should benefit from color combinations that will successfully complement the color you will use on the floor.

Should we choose the laminate flooring according to the furniture or should we choose the furniture according to the laminate flooring?

the main layer of the space, should be decided. Because the whole room is built on it. After choosing your flooring suitable for your spaces, you can complete the other elements and ensure integrity in your decoration.

The material, color and texture you choose on the floor are the elements that greatly affect the general perception of the space. The underlay you create together with the flooring in your spaces will play a major role in the selection of other decoration elements and will also guide them. After choosing the laminate flooring, you should choose a wall covering that is compatible with it, and then your furniture and accessories. The elements you choose should complement each other and provide integrity in your decoration.

Which color tone laminate floorings look more harmonious with which color furniture?

If you want a soft pastel look in your spaces, you can create a soft transition style with a light beige laminate flooring facing slightly gray. Samos and Sicily laminate floorings from the VarioClic series are special options for those who want this kind of decoration. Pale pink wall color, glass-dominated surfaces, mirrors and light-colored furniture, light-colored laminate flooring will provide a perfect integrity.

Preference of Fine Souls

The two styles that are most often confused with each other are perhaps vintage and retro. In fact, when we think on a product basis, vintage is used for really old products, retro is used for new products that just “look old”.

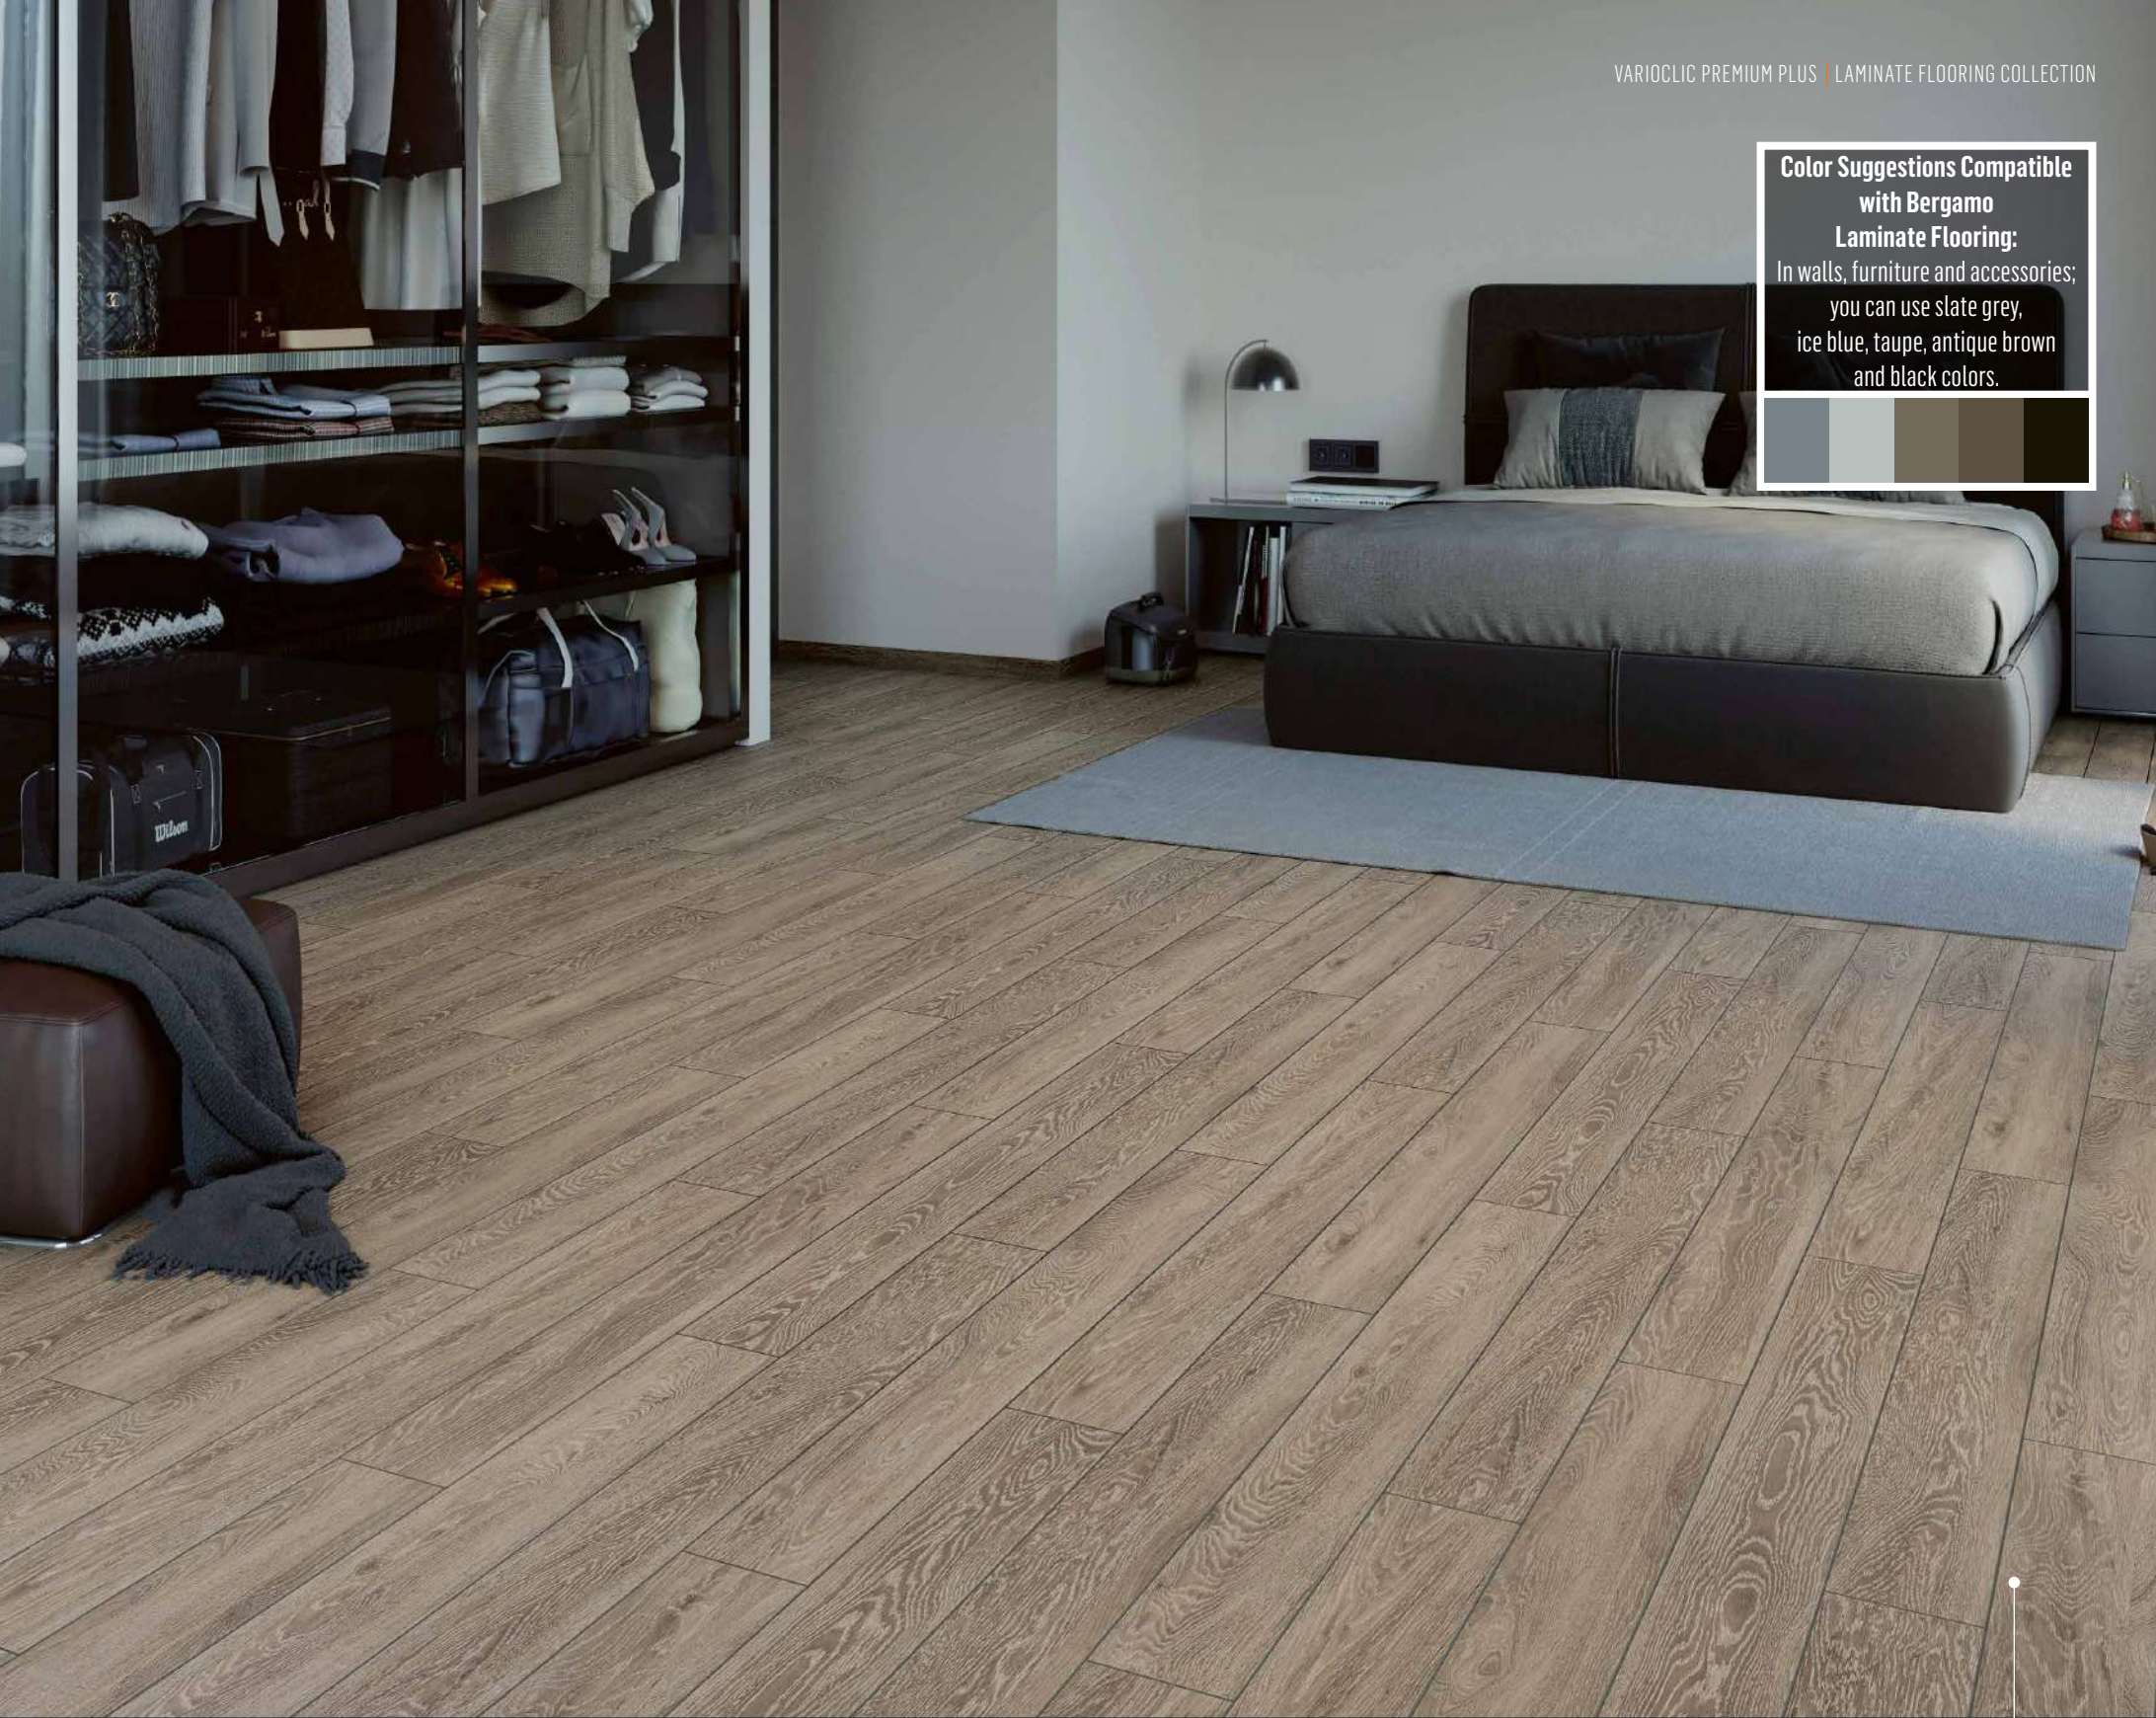

While some people prefer vintage furniture that they think has a soul and a sense of experience, some people do not like old furniture, they only use retro furniture that reflects the old style.

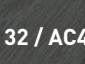

If you want to reflect the feeling of the past to your home, you can start decorating by choosing dark brown laminate floorings on your floors. In addition, you can use timeless colors such as walnut color and cream color such as leather fabrics, velvet weavings, lace embroideries in every corner of your living spaces.

Bergamo, the choice of those who yearn for the old with its sense of experience and aesthetic patterns, will come to life as a nostalgic detail in new living spaces.

Who Look at Life Differently

You can add difference to your home by making use of contrasts in decoration. When it comes to contrast, the difference of colors, models and styles should be considered together. All the materials chosen while decorating a space should form a unity.

The physical features such as the light ratio, size and shape of the space constitute the criteria in decoration. It would be a more correct approach to use light and pastel colors in the main parts of the room and dominant colors in the accessories. Using dominant colors in the main pieces can create an eye-catching effect in decoration. Evenly and balanced distribution of colors in the space will both make it pleasing to the eye and reveal the harmony of contrast.

Genova laminate flooring, which adds elegance to spaces with its eye-catching color, is a complementary floor covering for those who want to contrast with furniture and walls. With its plain pattern and eye-catching tone, Genova will add a difference to your life.

Color Suggestions Compatible with Genova Laminate Flooring:

The Nobility of Dark

You can use dark colors in every area of your home such as living room, kitchen, bedroom, study room to create an effective atmosphere.

In addition to being aesthetically pleasing and noble, the use of dark colors in decoration can be a little difficult to use correctly. It can make your space look smaller than it is. To prevent this, you should definitely evaluate the feasibility of your space before using dark colors in your decoration. Physical factors such as light condition and size are the reasons that directly affect the color palette you will use.

Dark floor coverings, which add weight to the environment when used with the right light and light color decors, help you create an extraordinary atmosphere in your living spaces.

Color Suggestions Compatible with Milan Laminate Flooring:

Independent of Time...

When it comes to decoration, many styles come to mind. If you do not want your decoration to go out of fashion, if you want it to adapt to continuous use and new trends, modern-classic decoration is the right option for you.

Classical decoration is a special style that emerged in Italy many years ago and then spread to Europe from there. Although it is thought to be excessively exaggerated and ostentatious today, it is actually a lifestyle that adapts the decoration understanding of the past to the present without breaking its ties with the past.

The use of colors, the right material selection, the right positioning of furniture and accessories are important for modern-classical decoration.

It is possible to use this timeless style with different styles. Different spaces can be designed by combining it with other decoration styles such as Scandinavian style and minimalist style.

In modern-classic decoration, the walls are usually covered with fabric or natural wood. Although marble, etc. materials are rarely used for flooring, laminate flooring is generally used. It is important that the laminate flooring you choose is more remarkable and in the foreground compared to other styles. Being more striking in terms of both color and pattern makes it easy to notice when you enter the space.

Color Suggestions Compatible with Palermo Laminate Flooring:
In walls, furniture and accessories; you can use warm gray, raw earth, pale brown, slate and pink gray colors.

Offering a timeless design opportunity for those who cannot give up on the classic in their living spaces, Palermo laminate flooring will also add elegance to your floors with its modern look.

Add Energy to Life!

The colors used in the house are at the forefront of the elements that determine the energy of the house. Strong colors such as red and orange generally raise the energy of the house. In order for the house to have a unique energy, it is necessary to use striking colors. In accessories, which are one of the most important parts of decoration, the energy in the house rises with details such as live flowers, candles and wall paintings.

The rising energy of the house also helps to change the mood of the guests. Laminate floorings to be used on the floor in high-energy houses, from the furniture to be used to the wall color chosen, will also provide integrity. A home atmosphere that will harmonize with the warmth and high energy of the environment can be created by using laminate floorings such as Ephesus Oak, Venice, Mudanya, Palermo, Gobi in the VarioClic series.

Design Your Home with Romantic Touches

Home decoration is not independent of one's own inner world. Red and pink tones are dominant in romantic decors, which are adopted as a feminine style. Colors in these tones used throughout the house are usually accompanied by white. It has been observed that the decors, in which flower patterns are used a lot, give people high energy.

It is possible to decorate a romantic-toned home by creating peaceful spaces. While following this trend, soft colors and textures, soft carpets, fluffy pillows should be used. While bright and sparkling candlesticks are used in the dining area, flower and candle details should be included in the sitting area. In designs that combine soft colors, light colors should also be preferred on the floor. Choosing light colored, knotty and soft textured laminate floorings from the VarioClic series such as Alp Fishbone, Unye, Belek, Bari, Beykoz, Sanremo and Sicily will provide integrity.

For those who love calmness

It is possible to capture a calm atmosphere with green and blue tones that have a calming effect. In places where light colors will be preferred, furniture can be preferred with soft lines away from ostentatiousness. Preferring furniture that does not block the angle of incidence of the light, minimizing the objects to be used and making the final touches with candles will bring calmness to the areas. The fact that the house is furnished more simply and with less furniture will make the people in the place feel more peaceful and calm.

Authentic Surfaces

Bedrooms are the most special corner of our homes. As in all living spaces in the house, it is necessary to make harmonious choices in every sense in order to achieve a pleasant appearance in bedroom decoration.

A decoration specific to your tastes in your bedroom can help you add meaning to your living spaces. You can provide integrity by choosing laminate floorings suitable for your room's furniture, wall color, curtains and tulle.

If you are going to use dark laminate floorings in your living spaces, you should create contrast with contrasting colors. For a bedroom with dark wood flooring, you can choose light walls and furniture in shades of mustard, gray and green.

Venice laminate flooring from the VarioClic series, with its natural color and warm texture, is a candidate to be indispensable not only for your bedrooms but also for your living spaces.

Different Styles in Different Rooms

Home decorations are among the most important elements that reflect the personality of individuals and reveal their tastes. Every detail, from the wall color to the floor, is of great importance in the decors that are renewed every year with the change of trends.

While decorating is important whether it reflects personal tastes or not, it is also necessary to exchange ideas with competent interior architects for the right decoration and make the right decision.

While decorating, it is necessary to consider the width and size of the designed space. Stylish designs can be created by using light or dark colors, and different designs can be created by harmonizing with contrasting colors.

Living Room:

Our living rooms are one of the areas we want to be the most stylish in our home. The width and size of the living room is the most important factor that should be considered before buying a seating group or different items for the living room. Items received must be exactly the right size. The items chosen by individuals with a small living room should not be rough. Preferring small items can make the living rooms look more spacious and make them look wider.

For a stylish design, attention should be paid to color harmony. The atmosphere can be balanced by using paintings, lampshades or small house trinkets while ensuring color living room, a spacious look can be achieved by choosing light colors instead of dark colors, while at the same time, the lighting of the house is among the important elements. It is possible to highlight the decor of the house by using the right lighting options.

The harmony of the wall color and the floor plays a big role in making the living room look spacious. Alanya, Gobi, Agva, Cypress, Koycegiz and Mudanya varieties which carry the modern traces of VarioClinic laminate flooring suitable for living room floors can be preferred, as well as Goztepe and Hittite laminate floorings can be used with plain colored walls to capture the Bohemian style. Natural Fishbone, Alp Fishbone, Authentic Fishbone, which are indispensable for classical living rooms, can add a different atmosphere to the houses.

Day Room:

Day room decoration examples are among the most important spaces with different designs and styles.

Day rooms are often used to relax, watch movies and chat with friends. That's why comfort should be the first criterion you will base on when designing your living room.

Comfortable furniture, soft carpets and eye-catching lighting are ideal for day rooms.

In addition to these, a comfortable space can be created with cabinets, bookcases and useful coffee tables where you can store your belongings.

MELODI
UNS-76C

Kitchen:

Kitchen decoration can be designed using colorful and lively accessories. The most important factor for a stylish kitchen is kitchen cabinets. While you can create a stylish and classic design by using black and white kitchen cabinets, kitchens can be animated by choosing light colors. Different designs can be created by using colored lighting in kitchen lighting. The carpet to be used after the laminate flooring to be selected on the floor is also of great importance.

Moisture resistant and antibacterial flooring choices are very suitable for kitchens. If the kitchen is spacious, the dining area can also be used here. If the kitchen cabinets are to be chosen in dark colors, the dining area can be preferred in a light color. The atmosphere can be changed by using tables, trinkets, small potted flowers and colorful shelves.

Children's Room:

When considering the decoration of the children's room, the most important criteria should be hygiene and health. Because children especially like to play on the floor during their developmental age. For this reason, it is important for health that the carpet and laminate flooring used on the floor have antibacterial properties.

In addition, floor coverings chosen in plain colors can help children to be more peaceful and more focused on their studies.

The Style of Free Spirits: Bohemian Decoration

Bohemian style decoration can be called a combination of freedom and clutter. This decoration style, which is preferred more by colorful and free people who care about comfort, has its own characteristics. This feature shows that the bohemian decoration type has a flexible meaning.

In bohemian style home decoration, furniture can be in different colors. In addition, different wall color combinations can be made by using a single color furniture set. Bohemian furniture is usually comfortable and low to the ground. The important thing here is your comfort. Everything else comes after your comfort.

The most common decor product that can be used while interpreting the bohemian style is textile. You can use it on many surfaces such as furniture covering, blankets that you can place inside the house, throw pillows and pillows. The use of patterns mostly consists of geometric forms or natural prints. In other words, a striped duvet cover or a knitted blanket are among the products that will support this style. A comfortable bed, more pillows than you need, a painting on the wall that will reflect your style, and the floor covering you choose in the layout you create in your own space should also complement your style.

Color Suggestions Compatible with Sanremo Laminate Flooring:

New Trend in Decoration: Loft Design

A peaceful, wide and useful architecture with high ceilings...
Loft designed houses, which have become a trend in recent years, have become the new architectural trend of the 21st century.

The houses, decorated in loft style, have a mezzanine-style room and a combined kitchen and living room downstairs. High ceilings are one of the most distinctive features of this decoration style, which does not require much intervention while respecting the natural state of the space.

While wide areas are possible due to the absence of walls, the owners of the space can act freely in the selection of large items. The adoption of a modern style in furniture selection and the presence of leather fabric details in many places are among the points to be considered in the loft decoration style. You can use large and wide L-type sofas and coffee tables close to the ground in these houses where a minimal style is dominant. Another prominent detail in loft apartments is the wooden libraries that extend up to the ceiling. You can complete the loft home decoration with various decorative objects you put in front of the books and large paintings you will hang on the walls.

The flooring you choose in accordance with the furniture and wall covering you choose should also reflect this decoration style. Laminate floorings with dark, gray tones and natural patterns are very suitable for loft decoration style.

Elite Touches to Living Spaces

It is known that in the most preferred modern home decors of recent times, furniture does not take up much space and furniture suitable for its purpose is preferred. In addition to the minimal touches, the colors that will make you feel this simplicity also come to the fore. In modern styles constructed with light colors, gray is mostly preferred.

If you have started to design a house dominated by gray color, you can spice up your living spaces with simple paintings and green houseplants. In addition, warm-colored furniture that you will use on a plain floor will also have a positive effect on the home atmosphere.

Sicily laminate flooring, which is the starting point for a modern home style, lays the groundwork for your dream decoration with its natural structure and color transitions. With a unique harmony with dark wall colors and furniture chosen in pastel tones, Sicily will add elegance to your living spaces.
